Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums be and the same are hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the objects hereinafter expressed, viz:

For payment of the bounty to widows, children, fathers, mothers, brothers, and sisters of such volunteers as may have died or been killed, or may die or be killed, in service, authorized by the sixth section of an act entitled "An act to authorize the employment of volunteers to aid in enforcing the laws and protecting public property," approved July twenty-second, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, five millions of dollars, or so much thereof as may be found necessary: Provided, That said bounty shall be paid to the following persons, and in the order following, and to no other person, to wit: First, to the widow of such deceased soldier, if there be one. Second, if there be no widow, then to the children of such deceased soldier, share and share alike. Third, if such soldier left neither a widow, or child, or children, then, and in that case, such bounty shall be paid to the following persons, provided they be residents of the United States, to wit: First, to his father, or if he shall not be living, or has abandoned the support of his family, then to the mother of such soldier: and if there be neither father nor mother as aforesaid, then such bounty shall be paid to the brothers and sisters of the deceased soldier, resident as aforesaid.

For compensation of twenty additional clerks, hereby authorized to be employed in the office of the Commissioner of Pensions, to wit: For fifteen clerks of the first class, eighteen thousand dollars; for five clerks of the second class, seven thousand dollars.

FRIDAY MORNING OCT 31 1862

November Elections

The elections in November will be held on the following days in Massachusetts, Michigan, New Jersey and New York on the first Tuesday, or 4th day of the month in Delaware on the second Tuesday (or 11th day of the month All the above named States have Governors and other State officers to elect, with Congressmen and in each of them there will be but two tickets run Only one in Massachusetts has been heard of so far—the Union Republican headed by Gov Andrews. In Michigan the republicans have renominated Gov Blair, with several of the State officers Gen Wadsworth was nominated by a Union convention in New York, in reality, as it was called by the republican and Union State Committees the delegates being elected by county conventions called in a similar manner by the local Union (not republican committees These Union committees represent the party which so triumphantly elected Daniel S Dickinson, war democrat Attorney General last year New York will no doubtedly go strong for the Union so will Michigan and Massachusetts—the latter unconditional Union Delaware and New Jersey are considered doubtful

Humanity vs Barbarity —A correspondent of the Baltimore American thus describes a scene which occurred in that city a few days since:

A small body of Confederate prisoners, (about seventy-five in number,) in passing through the city on the way to Fort Delaware were detained for a short time in the vicinity of the new hospital on the Union Dock — Some of them were quite unwell and unable to eat the army rations which had been provided, and yet much in need of nourishment. This fact being made known to the ladies attending on our sick at the hospital, they hastily prepared tea and other suitable provision, and carrying it to the boat, with their own hands ministered to the necessities of the suffering prisoners, taking care to let them know, in kindly terms that they did it in sympathy with their sufferings and not with their cause. The service was very gratefully received, and the incident seemed to leave a pleasant impression on the minds of both parties—the sufferers and those who ministered to them

After the prisoners had left some persons in the garb of ladies came to the hospital with baskets of supplies inquiring for them. They were informed of their departure and that they had been furnished out of the supplies provided by the benevolent for our sick, and at the risk of having a short supply for that day, and it was suggested that if they were disposed so to appropriate them, the contents of their baskets would be very acceptable for hospital use The suggestion was met by a contemptuous expression in regard to "the Yankees," and immediate departure, baskets and all

Quicksilver Mine —The Spring Valley Water Company at San Francisco have discovered a very rich quicksilver mine on their land, The chief engineer of the company found the mine several weeks ago while excavating for a reservoir, but it was kept secret until recently The pure quicksilver falls from the seams of the ore in large globules. It is also found in pockets The company have purchased considerable land in the neighborhood

So frequent have been the desertions from the British army in the provinces to the American side that the Commander in Chief of H. M. Land Forces in British North America purposes in future that all deserters caught in the act shall be shot, instead of being transported to a penal colony

McClellan Silver medals have appeared in San Francisco They are in size like a fifty cent piece, on one side a bust of the General with the words, "Major-General George B McClellan" surrounding it, and on the other is an American eagle encircled by the words "I have sworn to defend my country"

A Saving —The California merchants are now paying their Eastern debts in legal tenders By the last steamer one could purchase a draft for $1,000 by paying $800 in gold, so that the California trader saved just twenty per cent A handsome profit and very easily made.

The San Francisco Patriotic Fund Committee have addressed a circular to citizens of that place now sojourning in Oregon British Columbia, Mexico, China, Europe and elsewhere, inviting their contributions

At a Chinese funeral in San Francisco recently, a female appeared in a rich dress ornamented with buttons of gold dollars A thief succeeded in cutting off the buttons, and escaped

Pacific Railroad —The subscription books of the Central Pacific Railroad were opened in Sacramento on the 22d, and stock to the amount of $400,000 subscribed A good beginning

Copper Mines —The copper mines at Crescent City are attracting attention The last steamer from San Francisco to that place was crowded with copper mine speculators

At the Coromandel diggings, New Zealand, a piece of quartz weighing four hundred ounces, worth $5 000, was found.

A Conversation with President Lincoln —In connection with the following anecdote of Lincoln we publish a portrait of the Martyr President

Some time last Winter an old clergyman of Springfield Illinois a friend of the President, came on here and was the guest of Lincoln Seizing a favorable opportunity the clergyman asked the President What sir, is your policy on the slavery question? The President with a little dash and deepness of the question but replied go on Parsons Well sir my question is rather a delicate one but I will use it in telling you a story You know Father B the old Methodist preacher—daily taken with fevers in his precincts Well one of the members of Father B a young Methodist minister was worrying about Fox river and Appomattox bears that he should be converted in fulfilling some of his appointments by a freshet in the river Father B checked him in the gravest manner and gave him a little advice Said he Young man I have always made it a rule in my life not to cross Fox river till I get to it" And" said the President I am not going to worry myself over the slavery question till I get to it But the other day among the letters there was a distinguished Methodist clergyman who had heard the story just told and knew of the application made of it by the President When he was introduced to Lincoln he simply remarked Mr President I have come to tell you that we have got to Fox river Lincoln saw the wit of the remark in an instant and laughed very heartily over it Was there not good sense in it as well as wit? Thank God we have now passed Fox river

Another Proclamation Reported to be Forthcoming—Florida to be Made a Large Government Cotton Plantation Washington correspondence dated Sept 20th, to the New York Herald says

I am informed by a gentleman high in the confidence of the Administration that the President has had in contemplation for some time, and will shortly issue another highly important proclamation It will therefore be expected at any moment It will proclaim the State of Florida at once to be under the jurisdiction of the Federal Government inviting at the same time, all free laborers from the North and West, white and black to settle in said State for the purpose of cultivating cotton The President will guarantee them ample protection by both the army and navy The State constitution is to be set aside for the present, and the State reduced to a territorial condition, and governed accordingly It is said that this is only initiating a policy which is to be largely adopted hereafter if it should prove successful The President hopes by this means to make ample provision for the cultivation of cotton not only for our domestic wants, but to supply foreign governments thereby obviating the necessity for intervention

Largest City in the World —A very erroneous idea is indulged in by many people in relation to the largest city in the world, many confidently assert that London, or, as it is frequently termed, the Great Metropolis is far superior both in size and the number of its inhabitants. But such is not the case — Jeddo, the capital of Japan is without exception, the largest and most populous city in the world

It contains the vast number of 1,500,000 dwellings and 5 000,000 of human souls

Many of the streets are 19 Japanese miles in length, which is equivalent to 22 English miles.

The commerce of Jeddo far exceeds that of any other city in the world, and the sea along the coast is constantly white with the sails of ships Their vessels sail to the Southern portion of the empire where they are laden with rice tea, sea coal tobacco silk, cotton and tropical fruits, all of which can find ready market in the North, and then return freighted with corn salt oil, isinglass and various other productions of the North which have a market in the South

Subscriptions to Sanitary Fund —Before acknowledged, $13 330 75

From Salem $402 87 as follows J H Moores, 25, R P Boise, D McCully, J R Moores, 20 each, T M Gatch, L E Pratt, W Kenyon, J Minto Jos Watt, F Henschell, E Garrison, 10 each, J B Graves, M Shannon, J Davidson I N Gilbert, T Rowley D W Cox H Perkins, A H Morgan, I S McDonald, R W Gresser, J C Peebles, I N Matheny J M Coulter, M Brey, T Reynolds, Rev W Roberts, Rev I Dillon, Rev L J Powell, Mrs E M Underwood, 5 each, J Brennan W Pettyjohn S Simpson, L Fullerton, J I Kinkead, J Fetzer, 2 50 each, collected at M E Church at lecture of A Holbrook $137 87

D F Harrington, Portland, 10 Total—$13,743 62

Mr J H Moores, who sent the above amount from Salem, writes that part only of what was subscribed there has yet been paid, and that only a portion of the library generously donated by Mr Gatch has been sold" Will not the friends of the suffering soldier at Salem and elsewhere in Oregon, act promptly in collecting and forwarding their contributions for his relief? Nearly fifteen thousand dollars have been remitted to the President of the Sanitary Commission the premium on all subscriptions, in gold having increased the contributions from Oregon and Washington more than one hundred dollars It is hoped that our citizens will speedily and cheerfully complete the work as well begun, and prove to the country that we are not behind our California neighbors in efforts and sacrifices for the welfare of the brave men who are fighting not less for the interests of Pacific, than Atlantic States Have the women of Oregon done their whole duty in this matter?

A HOLBROOK

The King of California Senators —The New York Post of October 1st remarks

The Rev Thomas Starr King has been named as a candidate for United States Senator from California to succeed Mr Latham In such an event the case of Mr King will be somewhat analogous to that of John A Gurley, of Cincinnati who is a Universalist clergyman He is said to be an active polemist and when nominated for Congress an old Methodist remonstrated with a brother for supporting for office a man that did not believe in hell I do not mind that at all was the reply, 'Mr Gurley will not be in Congress long before he will find out that there is a hell!'

Governor Morton and the Quakers —It is stated by a Western paper that Governor Morton of Indiana has ordered that forty per cent of the Quakers of the State be assessed for enrolment and those drafted are to go or pay two hundred dollars each

Beauregard in Command at Charleston —Gen Beauregard on the 24th of September officially announced to the rebel Congress his assumption of the command of the Department of South Carolina and Georgia

Thanks —We are indebted to Acting Mayor McCoy for copy of an Act amending the Charter of the city of Portland It will be found in another column

Eastern News

New York Oct — Sharpsburg (Md) special dispatch to the extent that but little fighting in the vicinity of Hancock has been greatly strengthened within the last two days This has caused a movement of the rebels to turn our right flank Our scouts are about to report the future disposition of the armies The rebels are desirous to either offer battle or go into winter quarters A large number of rebel soldiers having been found at Sharpsburg without arms or accoutrements are being sent to Harpers Ferry to work on the railroad bridge

A Harpers Ferry special dispatch to the Times says Burnside has been assigned by the Government to the command of the Harpers Ferry defences until the troops there placed under his orders His staff remains reported to be still with him

Louisville Oct 31 On Sunday last General Forrest with a strong force of rebel cavalry commenced crossing the Cumberland river near Gallatin Tennessee seventy miles from Nashville General Negley immediately sent Colonel Miller with a brigade to intercept the rebels Miller attacked them on Monday at daylight and drove them in confusion back across the river But few rebels were killed or wounded A number of them including one Colonel were captured

James B Clay Henry's son has cast his lot with the rebels

Philadelphia Oct 22 — Siegel's corps has moved all his command to the neighborhood of Centerville and established his line of outposts there Eight regiments have been added to his command within the last few days

Gold was selling at Richmond for 1 to 1 0 Provisions were very high Defrauding in the rebel Commissary Department had become so common as to be a current street talk

An Incident in Battle —A story is told of the veteran Sumner at the battle of Antietam His son young Captain Sumner a youth of 21, was on his staff The old man calmly stood amid a storm of shot and shells, and turned to send him through a doubly raging fire upon a mission of duty He might never see his boy again in life but country claimed his all and as he looked upon his young brow he grasped his hand encircled him in his arms and fondly kissed him Good-bye, Sammy Good-bye father" and the youth mounted his horse, gaily on the message He returned unharmed and again his hand was grasped with a cordial How d'ye do Sammy" answered by a grasp of equal affection The scene was touching to those around

Lazy Boys — A lazy boy makes a lazy man just as sure as a crooked sapling makes a crooked tree Who ever yet saw a boy grow up in idleness, that did not make a shiftless vagabond when he became a man unless he had a fortune left him to keep up appearances? The great mass of thieves paupers and criminals, that fill our penitentiaries and alms houses, have come to what they are, by being brought up in idleness Those who constitute the business part of the community—those who make our great and useful men—were taught in their boyhood to be industrious

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City

THE DAILY OREGONIAN may be had at the Franklin Book Store and at Charles Barrett's Front street

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—The Hon J P Vinton delivered his second lecture on temperance in the M E Church on last evening to a full house The ladies were well represented, and seemed highly entertained, especially with the recipe for curing drunken husbands If all the ladies of Portland who are troubled with husbands of this order were to try this recipe, wouldn't there be a slight sprinkling of bald headed gentry numbered, us Mr. Vinton intends delivering at least one more lecture before leaving the city the time and place of which will be duly given in the columns of our paper

ERR JULIA.—The steamer Julia arrived at her wharf rather earlier than usual last evening. She brought down about fifty passengers, mostly miners

A "FALLEN" MAN.—A man who was riding at a rapid rate up Front street, yesterday morning, was suddenly pitched over his horse's head, at the corner of Stark street by the horse slipping on the wet plank The man was not seriously killed nor dangerously injured, but his raiment received a shock which time and the tailor may repair.

AN AMUSING OCCURRENCE.—As the steamer Julia reached her landing last evening, there was the usual rush of hotel runners to secure the "honest miners" and immigrants for the different houses represented by them One of these gentlemen assured an immigrant that hotel was full of gray backs and offered to bet $2 50 that his statement was correct The bet was taken by the indignant runner for this hotel, and the $2 50 deposited, by the first party, in the hands of the immigrant; but the second party failing to come to time with the "dust," the first party much elated at his success in thus proving his assertion, turned to his immigrant friend to recover his stake—but he had flown, taking the gold piece with him We reckon our "honest" will be a little more careful, next time he bets, who holds the stakes

An Act to amend an Act entitled "An Act to incorporate the City of Portland."

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon, That Section one and two of Article seven, of an Act entitled "An Act to incorporate the City of Portland," be and the same is hereby repealed

Sec. 3. Within ten days from the publication of such notice, the owners of two thirds of the adjacent property may file with the Clerk of the Common Council a written protest against the proposed grade, improvement or repair, and thereupon the same shall not then be made; but if no such protest be so made and filed, the Common Council shall proceed to make such grade improvement or repair, and one-half of the cost thereof shall be paid by the owner of the adjacent property, and such share of the cost shall be a lien upon said property from the commencement of the work upon such grade improvement or repair, until the same is paid, and such lien may be enforced in the manner herein after provided.

Sec. 4. Sec. 6. At any time within one year after the entry of such memorandum, an action may be maintained by the City of Portland, in any Court of competent jurisdiction, against the owner of such property if known, or if unknown against an owner unknown, to recover the amount of such cost with legal interest thereon from the date of such entry, and to enforce the lien therefor upon the property described therein as near as may be in the manner prescribed in title 1 of chapter four of an Act entitled an Act concerning liens of mechanics, laborers and other persons, approved 22d of December, A D 1853

Sec. 3. That this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage

Approved October 16, 1862

Essay on Oregon for the Info... of the...

BY W. LADD HILL

(Concluded.)

MISCELLANEOUS

Some peculiarities and special adaptation of this State deserve to be more particularly noticed, though space will not allow this to be done at length.

SHEEP.—A very intelligent writer of New England calls Oregon a "mammoth sheep pasture." From what has been exhibited of its soil, climate and range, it will be perceived, that with equal propriety, and no greater hyperbole, it might be denominated, also a mammoth grain field and vegetable garden and a mammoth gold placer. In a country eminently fitted by nature for so many branches of business, as Oregon, discrimination in favor of any one particularly, will seem unwarranted, not to say unjust. But certainly if Oregon has a specialty it is her pre eminence as a wool growing country. Until very recently little attention has been paid to the matter of sheep raising, but it is now becoming one of the staple interests of the State. Sheep thrive better here than in any other State. Disease amongst them is exceedingly rare. They increase here faster than in the east and the wool is of excellent quality. Only one manufactory of woolen goods is yet in active operation. This is located at Salem. Another is in course of construction in Linn County. The wool clip of the State in 1861 amounted to 344,000 pounds. That in 1862, (estimated by Mr. L. E. Pratt, of the Willamette Woolen Manufacturing Company,) is 344,000 pounds. The difference of amount is owing chiefly to the losses of last winter. The average price of wool in 1861, was 18 cents per pound, in 1862 it is 20 cents. In respect to the quality of Oregon wool Mr. Pratt says "there is no inferior wool grown in the State." When the eastern papers quote the price of "Oregon burr wool," they mislead dealers to the prejudice of this State, as there are no burrs in the country—they probably refer to wool grown in California, and are imposed upon by dealers of that State.

The Willamette Woolen Manufacturing Company turn out annually 4,000 pairs of blankets, 10,000 yards flannels, 60,000 yards cloths and tweeds, and 4,000 pounds stocking yarn. The cloths are worth, on an average, $1 12½ per yard, the blankets, $8 00.

The expenses of the Factory are $56,000.

LUMBER.—Everything has been done which Nature could do, to make Oregon to the Pacific what Maine is to the Atlantic Coast. The best of timber, with unexampled water privileges convenient of access for sea going vessels, leaves nothing to be desired in this respect, but enterprising men who will engage in the business of supplying foreign markets.

FISHERIES.—All along the sea-coast Oyster and Salmon fisheries might be made highly profitable. The Salmon on this coast are not only more abundant, but acknowledged to be of much better quality than those of the Atlantic. Clam and Cod fisheries might also be established along the coast.

BEES.—The introduction of bees into Oregon is of very recent date. They prosper well, and produce a large amount of honey. Three years since a hive was worth $150; now it is worth $25.

FRUIT.—Reference has already been made to this, but something a little more specific is required. For apples and pears, Oregon is unrivaled. Cherries thrive passably well. Peaches do not generally succeed well, except some very hardy varieties. Plums are in great abundance, and fairly flavored. Quinces and apricots flourish.—Grapes are good—especially early varieties. Shrub fruits generally produce exceedingly well. All in all, Oregon is the fruit garden of America if not of the World.

Grains of all kinds, like cereals, yield largely.

COMMERCE.—From the geographical position and internal resources already shown, it does not require that much should be said of its commerce. Certain circumstances, however, have prevented the development of the strength of the State in this respect, the principal of which is the law under which the land of Oregon is held. At an early period in the settlement of the country, a law was passed by Congress donating 640 acres of land to each man having a wife—or rather 320 acres each to the man and wife—and 320 acres each to single men settling in the Territory. The result of this large donation has been to render the population of the State so sparse that all interests of the body social, all the nerves of civilization and progress have been completely paralyzed. This effect has been visible more in connection with the commercial than with any other branch of the social economy of the State unless it be the educational. It is hoped however, that these detrimental consequences of the Nation's liberality will not longer continue to operate as they have done hitherto, since the largeness of the gift has reduced a great majority of the donees to such a condition as compels them to divide their large tracts of land. When this is done, and not before, Oregon will begin to exhibit that degree of prosperity for which God has given her such ample capabilities. The annexed statements of exports from Portland may give some idea of the present commercial status of the country, while it indicates also the advantageous position Oregon occupies in reference to foreign trade. During the quarter ending the 30th of April, 1861, the exports from Portland were as follows:

To San Francisco.—63,187 qr sks flour, 1,000 fruit trees, 18,877 bxs apples, 490 sks onions, 470 cases of bacon, 41 bxs butter, 112 bxs eggs, 893 hides, 312 bbls lard, 2,992 sks wheat, 68 pkgs merchandise, 62 rolls leather, 66 head horses, 1,104,000 feet pine lumber, 27 bales wool, 12 pkgs castings, 370 sks feed, 10 sks timothy seed, 4 coops poultry, 35 bales deer skins, 9 bbls fish oil, 8 bbls tallow, 293,961 dollars treasure.

To Victoria.—22,412 sks flour, 800 sks beans, 6,200 fruit trees, 1,880 bxs. apples, 714 sks onions, 981 cases bacon, 17 bxs butter, 263 bxs eggs, 57 sheep, 9 hogs, 27 coops poultry, 1,000 sks feed, 200 sks wheat, 924 bbls flour, 15 bbls coal tar, 31 head cattle.

To Honolulu.—1,200 qr sks flour, 4 hhbls lard, 4 cases bacon, feet pine lumber, 200,000 shingles, 500 lbs nails, bread.

To the Colonies.—204 qr sks flour, 884 cases bacon, 64 rolls leather, 17,763 pkgs merchandise, 2 wagons, 3 carriages, 808 head stock, 101 bxs apples, 64 bundles fruit trees, 1 sks timothy seed, 10 plows, 12,750 shingles.

Cattle driven from Oregon to Fraser River during the same time were valued at $13,500.

Monthly average of gold obtained from the mines during the same period $8,000. This was before the discovery of Salmon, John Day, or Powder River mines.

It is in place to add that the season of the year included in this statement is that in which there are less of exports shipped from this State than at any other time. The statement is made simply for the purpose of exhibiting the variety of resources which Oregon possesses. It would have been almost impossible to obtain a correct report of the trade during the more flush seasons.

SCHOOLS.—Oregon, though a new country is not without its school system and the people of the State manifest an interest in the subject of education, which cannot fail of raising the intelligence and refinement of the country to a high standard, so soon as the population is sufficient. Common schools are kept in almost every neighborhood, and Grade Schools and Academies are located in several places. Limits of space forbid more specific statements.

CHURCHES.—Also the religious statistics of the State, will evidence that the immigrant to Oregon need not fear that he is coming to a barbarous or half civilized land. While the population of the State is only about 69,000, it contains

| DENOMINATION | CHURCHES | MEMBERS |
|---|---|---|
| Methodist | 35 | 2,983 |
| Baptist | 22 | 1,073 |
| Congregationalist | 16 | 127 |
| Moravian | 00 | 700 |
| Reformers | (No large, not accurately known.) | |
| Catholic† | 5 | 10,000 |

THE QUESTION.

It may now be asked where and on what terms can land be obtained in Oregon. In the western portion of the State, that is in the Rogue River, Umpqua, and Willamette Valleys, the best land is occupied. Farms can be had, however, in these valleys, for from five to ten dollars per acre, according to location. There is ample room and settlement is invited. As good agricultural land as there is in the world can be bought for eight dollars per acre in any of these districts.

The land in Eastern Oregon is, for the most part, vacant. Homes may be obtained by simply occupying them under the provisions of the Homestead Law which will take effect the 1st of January, 1863, or by the provisions of the Pre emption Law.—These lands are not yet surveyed, but no difficulty need be apprehended on this account. The immigrant has nothing to do but comply with the conditions under which he takes, and his title will be secure to a home for his family which even the rapacity of pitiless creditors can not wrest from them, and which in return for moderate industry, will enable him always to have enough and to spare of the good things of this world.

†The number of Catholic communicants is not accurately known. This is the number estimated by Archbishop Blanchet.
